JEFFERSON COUNTY VOTERS SHIFTED TO NEW PRECINCTS

RIGBY, ID, April 19, 2018 – New voting locations have been created in Jefferson County. Up to 2,150 voters, most of whom live south and east of Rigby, will be affected by the creation of three new precincts.

“We have had significant growth in this area, and many voters experienced long waits during elections,” said Shonna Allred, Jefferson County Elections Administrator.

In response to the overcrowded polls, the Jefferson County Board of Commissioners approved the new precincts, Rigby No. 5, Rigby No. 6, and Rigby No. 7. These precincts are located south of Highway 48 between 3800 East and 4200 East. Voters in these precincts were formerly in the Garfield and Rigby No. 3 precincts. Residents in this area are encouraged to check their voting locations prior to the primary election May 15, as they may have changed.

“If you arrive at the wrong polling place, you will not be able to vote there,” Allred said.

Voting information for Jefferson County is available at: www.co.jefferson.id.us/elections.php. Registered Idaho voters can find their polling places at: <https://idahovotes.gov>.
